Variety of Teas

English Breakfast Tea

Sourced from the high-altitude tea gardens of Sri Lanka

Earl Grey

Finest Ceylon black teas subtly scented with bergamot essential oil

First Flush Darjeeling

Floral fragrance and hint of sweetness, this blend is a heavenly, first Flush tea, harvested in spring from the hilly, monsoonal Darjeeling district in West Bengal, India

White Peony

Comes from the hometown of White Tea, in Fujian Province, China

English Rose Blend

Black tea, infused with delicate rose petals and vibrant blue cornflowers

Jasmin Green Tea

Green Tea from China harvested in Fuzhou, south-east China, is a naturally infused in jasmine blossom for a delightfully floral brew

Tie Guan Yin

Also known as The Iron Goddess of Mercy or Iron Buddha is a lightly oxidised Chinese oolong produced in Anxi County, in the southern part of Fujian province

Sencha

Green tea harvested in the historic tea growing district of Ise Bay, Japan

Organic Vanilla Rooibos

Sourced from South African Rooibos or Red Bush, added vanilla pieces and natural vanilla flavouring

Chamomile Blossoms

With soft golden blooms and full, floral aroma

Lemongrass & Ginger

Zesty lemongrass, warming ginger and aromatic liquorice root

Hibiscus Bora
